ALS ANNOUNCES ROCHESTER-AREA SUPPORT GROUP SCHEDULES Rochester Support Group For Lou Gehrig's Disease Meets at Al Sigl Center

ROCHESTER, N.Y. -- (November 9, 2007) The ALS Association of Upstate NY has announced its schedule for support groups through January 2008. For the Rochester area, all support groups will meet at the Al Sigl Center, JV Room, 1000 Elmwood Ave. from 7 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. The dates are:

Tuesday, Nov. 27

Tuesday, Dec. 18

Tuesday, Jan. 29

Kathleen Gill, Ph.D., will present the topic "Intimacy Issues Facing Disable Persons" at the Rochester Support Group Tuesday, Nov. 27.

ALS support groups are open to all ALS patients, family, friends or caregivers. Refreshments are served. R.S.V.P.s are not necessary but are appreciated. Call 866-499-7257 toll-free or email info@alauptateny.org.

ALS, or amyotrophic lateral sclerosis, is a fatal, neuro-degenerative disease that afflicts nearly 6,000 new patients each year. Another 6,000 will die from the disease, which advances at varying rates with each individual. The ALS Association is the only national not-for-profit voluntary health organization whose sole mission is to find a cure for amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (LOU GEHRIG'S DISEASE) as well as improve living with ALS. For more information, call the ALS Association toll-free at 866-499-7257 or visit www.alsauptateny.org.
